DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Please cancel claims 41-44.

2. This application is in condition for allowance except for the presence of claims 41-44 drawn to a non-elected invention without traverse. Accordingly, claims 41-44 been cancelled.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1,2,4-9,11,13-40 are allowable over the prior art of record.
4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: As per the independent claims of claims 1,2,4-9,13,14, the claim language pertaining to calculating the ratio of the voiced to unvoiced signals, wherein the lower bands are calculated at a higher resolution than the high band signals and comparing the correlation coefficients with the voicing threshold for each segment is not explicitly taught by the prior art of record. Nishiguchi (5765127) breaking into segments (fig 2a); and computing a ratio of voiced to unvoiced segments (col. 2 lines 30-40). As per the independent claims of claims 15-40, the recited limitations of calculating, quantizing, and using a pitch period, a voice probability, a mid-frame pitch period, and a mid-frame voice probability, is not explicitly taught by the prior art of record. Gao (6507814), for example, teaches a LP analysis performed on a subframe basis (performed twice per frame), but only uses one set of values from both sets measured (as pointed to in applicants arguments, pp 20, faxed on 3/7/2005). However, the prior art of record does not explicitly teach the claim limitations found in the independent claims of claim range 1,2,4-9,11,13-40. Furthermore, it would not have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art of voice signal processing to modify the teachings of the prior art of record to obtain the recited claim limitations noted above.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
